Everything. The mayor was absent when the permit was granted.

It must be pretty near clear to all by this time that Albert Isestein didn't make application to enter the U. of C.

Supervisor MacClellan is sending out a lotta publicity telling about the millions the board saved the county. They must be figured in the cost of paving Western avenue once a year for the past ten years, eh?

Walt Peck will be the next supervisor in your place, Mac, so you better save your postage.

Walter Renn says he don't bowl for a high score, but just for exercise. Just the same we never seen Walt refuse to accept a strike because it gave him one less ball to throw.

Charlie Vonderahe put all those signs up on the roads in and out of Torrance. Charlie's brother Boobie has quit the realty game and gone to work.

J. D. Flora, a broker from up to L. A., was a visitor in town Sunday and pronounced Torrance the best little city he has seen in travels that has took him far and wide. Mr. Flora is no relation to the well-known Fauna.

The folks in town are shouting. As loud as any parson. Against that fruit stand they put up at Gramercy and Carson.

Oh, it ain't goin' to rain no mo', no mo'. News are scarce this wk.

RICHARD S. FLAHERTY TAKES OVER LOCAL BUICK AGENCY

Richard S. Flaherty, formerly of Pittsburg, announced today that he has purchased the Buick agency here from J. A. Phillips. The territory taken over by Mr. Flaherty includes Torrance, Gardena and Compton.

Mr. Flaherty will retain the Buick service and show rooms at 1216 Cabrillo avenue in the spacious building recently erected by Mr. Phillips.

Mr. Flaherty is an experienced automobile man, having spent several years in service work in Pittsburg.

"Service is the most essential element in the conduct of an automobile agency," said Mr. Flaherty. "We intend to make it especially attractive to Buick owners in Torrance and vicinity."

Mr. Flaherty motored to Torrance from Pittsburg, stopping at Pike's Peak and Yellowstone National Park. During the trip, which he made with Mrs. Flaherty in a 1923 Buick, he covered 4800 miles.

The new 1925 Buicks are on display at the Flaherty showrooms on Cabrillo avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Flaherty are residing in Torrance.

COMING MOVIE ATTRACTIONS

If you want to see soul-stirring romance and thrilling adventure laid in the South Sea Isles, New York, and the Yukon; if you want to be entertained as you have never been entertained before, go to the Torrance theatre tonight and see "The Shooting of Dan McGrew."

The situations are more than interesting, the star does seemingly impossible stunts with the grace of a deer, the settings are the great open west, the cast is of the best, the horse Silver King is the marvel of the equine world, and the story is of love, romance, trials and tribulations such as confront us in reality. That is what constitutes Fred Thomson's latest picture, "The Mask of Lopez," that appears at the Torrance theatre Saturday only. The result is a picture that holds interest every minute.

"Wanted—A public school geography of 1880." This advertisement, appearing in daily newspapers throughout the United States for three months, met with no response. The book was needed for a scene in Zane Grey's "The Heritage of the Desert," to be shown at the Torrance theatre on Sunday and Monday next.

It was finally found by accident in a little second-hand store in Los Angeles. According to Irvin Wilhat, producer of the picture, books that were rare 40 years ago are easy to obtain today. Conversely, volumes which were plentiful two-score years ago are now almost impossible to obtain.

The reason is that rare books were treasured, while cheap books were carelessly thrown aside. A school geography being easily obtained 40 years ago, was just as easily lost.

"The Heritage of the Desert" is a picture of pioneer life. It is the story of a fight for water rights of the Colorado river. Featured in the production are Belje Daniels and Ernest Torrance.
